

READER'S GRADING SHEET IN CHURCH POLITY

I. OVERALL EVALUATION FOR THIS EXAMINATION. A single overall grade must be assigned by the reader to this examination. The overall grade for the examination will be the average of grades received on all three questions, with rounding up or down to be determined by the reader on the basis of the examination's overall merit. However, the examination must receive a grade of "3" or higher on at least two out of the three questions in order to be considered "SATISFACTORY." The examination will fail if any one of the sections is omitted.

Each examination will be read independently by two persons. If both grades are 3,4, or 5, the final grade is SATISFACTORY. If both grades are 1 or 2, the final grade is UNSATISFACTORY. If one final grade is 1 or 2, and the other final grade is 3,4,5, the paper will be given a third reading, to determine the final grade.

II. THIS GRADING SHEET GOES TO THE CANDIDATE. The reader's comments on this grading sheet should represent his or her considered appraisal of the paper, which will be read by the candidate and the candidate's committee on preparation for ministry. Use the back of this sheet for comments explaining why the grade was assigned to this paper.

I. This response had a good logical flow and the citations were adequate. The newsletter article, other than hinting that the church was closed during the summer, was very well done.

II. While the citations were used to address the situation, one of the main elements of the question was missed. Jane has already asked the session to investigate the situation. This response did not deal with the provisions of how to do that.

III. This response is adequate.

- I. The paper cites a broad range of references to the Boo. These are discussed clearly, ~~to~~ & used effectively ^{creatively} in the newsletter. Together these demonstrate a working knowledge of how the church becomes Christ's Faithful Evangelist.
- II. This paper seems to move away from discipline. While one citation from the Rules of Discipline is given, others that would be helpful are not included. This is an area that needs further amplification.
- III. The paper cites the appropriate number of references to the Boo. These references influence the responses to each of the 4 people.

The paper's spell check didn't catch omitted words & apostrophes!
