

READER'S GRADING SHEET IN POLITY

OVERALL EVALUATION FOR THIS EXAMINATION. A single overall grade must be assigned to the reader to this examination. The overall grade for the examination will be the average of grades received on three questions, with rounding up or down to be determined by the reader on the basis of the examination's overall merit. However, the examination must receive a grade of "3" or higher on at least two out of the three questions in order to be considered "SATISFACTORY." The examination will be unsatisfactory if any one of the sections is omitted.

Each examination will be read independently by two persons. If both grades are 3, 4, or 5, the final grade is SATISFACTORY. If both grades are 1 or 2, the final grade is UNSATISFACTORY. If one final grade is 1 or 2 and the other final grade is 3, 4, 5, the paper will be given a third reading, to determine the final grade.

THIS GRADING SHEET GOES TO THE CANDIDATE. The reader's comments on this grading sheet should represent his or her considered appraisal of the paper, which will be read by the candidate and the candidate's committee on preparation for ministry. Use the back of this sheet for comments explaining why the grade was assigned to this paper.

GRADING EACH SECTION. Indicate on the spaces below the grade for each section of this examination, using the following scale:

- 5 - Excellent

SECTION I

This section DID look at the office of minister ~~and~~ ^{of} word and sacrament. However, the question was much broader than just ministers. What about the office of Elder and Deacon. The Elders (Session) are also responsible for the word rightly preached and the sacraments administered and discipline. Look up

The statement made in the last sentence of the last paragraph is a very strong statement that could get you into trouble later on. Speaking as a pastor always look to your congregation, session and deacons or leaders.

SECTION II

This section adequately identifies five required actions. It would have been stronger if the paper explained why those actions are required.

SECTION III

This section of the paper did an excellent job of reflecting the people's (congregations) right to choose or dismiss their own officers. ~~The~~ The paper did a good job pastorally addressing each person's concern. Good Job!

----- satisfactorily answered the question concerning Ministers of the Word & Government, good use of cited References & a discussion of each. This reader feels a stronger answer would have included other officers of the church i.e. elders & deacons.

Section II

Satisfactorily answered concerning Required actions by the session or congregation to include proper citations with succinct discussions to include the deacons (not a Requirement of this exam) This reader feels a stronger answer would have included more discussion regarding each of the Required actions.

Part I A 1

Excellent Responses to those certain procedures in the case of dissolution of a Relationship & many citations were utilized. Demonstrated a very good working knowledge of the Book of Order.

Part I A 2

Excellent working with the session, addressed each persons concerns without solving their individual problems, provided the good working knowledge of the Book of Order & encouraged them to use it.
